

GUANGDONG CERAMICS

from Butuan and other Philippine sites

GUANGDONG CERAMICS

from Butuan and other Philippine sites

an exhibition catalogue presented by

The Oriental Ceramic Society of the Philippines

jointly with

The National Museum

October 3–19, 1988

With contributions from

Roxanna M. Brown

Rita R. Cembrano

Alfredo E. Evangelista

Peter Y. K. Lam

Wilfredo P. Ronquillo

Rita Ching Tan

James C. Y. Watt

Edited by

Roxanna M. Brown

Oriental Ceramic Society of the Philippines/Oxford University Press

Contents

Board of Directors 1988–89 / 6

Membership / 6

Exhibition Committee / 7

Publication Committee / 7

Message / 9

Foreword / 11

1. The Problem of Provenance in Manufacture of Chinese Trade Ceramics Found in the Philippines / 15
– Dr. Alfredo E. Evangelista
Assistant Director, National Museum
2. Vestiges of the Nanhai Trade / 29
– Rita Ching Tan
Exhibition Chairperson
3. Hsi-Ts'un, Ch'ao-an and Other Ceramic Wares of Kwantung in the Northern Song Period / 35
– James C. Y. Watt
Senior Curator, Dept. of Asian Art, Metropolitan Museum, New York
4. Decorative Techniques and Styles in Guangdong Trade Wares of the Song Period / 47
– Peter Y. K. Lam
Deputy Curator, Art Gallery, Chinese University of Hong Kong
5. The Butuan Archaeological Finds: Profound Implications for Philippine and Southeast Asian Pre-history / 61
– Wilfredo P. Ronquillo
Archaeology Division, National Museum
6. Guangdong Song-Dynasty Sherds Discovered in the Balangay Area, Butuan, Northeastern Mindanao / 71
– Margarita R. Cembrano
National Museum, Butuan City
7. Guangdong: A Missing Link to Southeast Asia / 81
– Roxanna M. Brown
Chiangmai University

Lenders to the Exhibition / 128