16 November 2006, 9.00am – 5.00pm, Sheraton Towers Hotel, Singapore

Businesses in Singapore and throughout Asia continue to develop and streamline operations for maximum effect. The shared services route, an increasingly popular way to drive efficiency by centralising backroom functions dispersed across departments, is one such avenue. Setting up a quality and profitable shared services centre requires careful consideration of the alternatives such as outsourcing and offshoring, a structured implementation and ongoing monitoring to minimise operational problems, maintain quality and maximise profits.

'Successful Shared Services' is an intensive 1-day conference designed to provide effective solutions and best practices. Leading industry experts and practitioners present case studies that highlight strategies to assist your organisation identify clear objectives, set realistic targets and plan for operational success.
